

22nd February 2013

Assistant Plantation Manager NT – TFS Corporation Ltd

TFS Corporation Ltd manages the largest sustainable Indian Sandalwood plantation in the world, with over 6,500 hectares established in the Tropical North of Australia

A vacancy exists for an Assistant Plantation Manager to join the expanding Northern Territory Plantations Team. Reporting to the Plantation Manager NT, the Assistant Plantation Manager will be responsible for the coordination of ongoing plantation maintenance operations including the daily management of plantation work crews.

This position will initially be based in Katherine however there are prospects for interstate deployment in line with company growth and expansion strategies.

Knowledge and skills

Essential:

- Minimum two years' experience in Forestry/Agriculture/Horticulture practices
- Formal qualifications in Agriculture/Forestry/Horticulture
- Experience in supervision of horticultural work crews
- Current C – class driver's license
- Experience in large scale drip and flood irrigation
- Comprehensive leadership and communication skills
- Comprehensive time management and organisational skills
- Experience in the use of computers including Microsoft office suites
- Experience in agricultural/horticultural chemical application
- Recent experience and history in agricultural plant operations
- Ability to carry out duties safely in accordance with OHS regulations

Desirable

- Experience in bore systems and related infrastructure
- Occupational First Aid
- HR license
- Chemical Users certificate

Potential long term position to suitable candidate

Contact TFS Main Office in Kununurra (08) 9168 1008, fax resumes to (08) 9168 1651 or email Riley Shaw rileystfs@bigpond.com